Cheers to our Oregon volunteers!

To our sponsors, volunteers, awardees, judges, and all who attended--Thank you for helping make the 2010 Governor's Volunteer Awards a success! This year's event grew to nearly 400 in attendance and honored 28 amazing volunteers and organizations who have worked tirelessly to make Oregon the best it can be.

The National Service Scoop

Get inspired with Senior Corps, AmeriCorps and Learn and Serve

From digging out, cleaning and removing more than 1,100 critter-filled, mud-encrusted tires at Williamson River Delta Preserve to assisting in a large-scale grazing monitoring project at Zumwalt Prairie covering 5,000 acres, The Nature Conservancy's AmeriCorps Conservation Team (ACT) Roving Crew in Oregon has been busy with projects all across the state. Read about their incredible adventures and if they've been hard at work near you recently. Read More
