Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and/or Cesar Chavez Day Mini-Grant Program

Applications accepted through Nov. 17 for community projects

"An individual has not started living until he can rise above the narrow confines of his individualistic concerns to the broader concerns of all humanity." - Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Do you have an intergenerational project you're planning for MLK Day or Cesar Chavez day? We might be able to help you fund it! Find out if you're eligible to submit your project for our Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and Cesar Chavez Day Mini-Grant program and start thinking about how you can make a positive change in the community you love.

Cheers to our Oregon volunteers!

To our sponsors, volunteers, awardees, judges, and all who attended--Thank you for helping make the 2010 Governor's Volunteer Awards a success! This year's event grew to nearly 400 in attendance and honored 28 amazing volunteers and organizations who have worked tirelessly to make Oregon the best it can be.

Don't forget to start thinking about who to nominate for next year's awards. We encourage everyone from across Oregon to nominate an outstanding volunteer or volunteer program. Nomination information will be posted on OregonVolunteers.org in the next couple months so check back soon!

International Volunteer Managers Day is Friday, November 5

There are so many great ways to show your volunteer manager you appreciate them. Check out some unique ideas on our website. Plus, download a special 'Thank You' e-Card to send out as you wish.

The National Service Scoop

Get inspired with Senior Corps, AmeriCorps and Learn and Serve

From digging out, cleaning and removing more than 1,100 critter-filled, mud-encrusted tires at Williamson River Delta Preserve to assisting in a large-scale grazing monitoring project at Zumwalt Prairie covering 5,000 acres, The Nature Conservancy's AmeriCorps Conservation Team (ACT) Roving Crew in Oregon has been busy with projects all across the state. Read about their incredible adventures and if they've been hard at work near you recently. Read More
